- 4. We have complied with all of the procedures set forth in Virginia Housing's Originating Guide and in our opinion, the enclosed application meets all of Virginia Housing's requirements set forth therein for compliance with the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and such provisions have been satisfied.

5. Certification re: Availability of Mortgage Loans

The undersigned hereby certifies as follows:

On the basis of our review of the information submitted to us by the borrower and on the basis of our knowledge of the present cost of mortgage loans in this area, it is our opinion that a long-term first mortgage loan is not otherwise available to the borrower from private lenders upon reasonably equivalent terms and conditions.

- 6. The Originating Lender must retain in its files, in accordance with the regulations of the GSE, insurer or guarantor, all documents required to be retained by such GSE, insurer or guarantor or by the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, for such prescribed period or for 3 years, whichever is longer.
- 7. Originating Lender certifies that any fees charged to Borrower by Origination Lender do not exceed the amount or type of fees customarily charged by the Originating Lender on its comparable non-Virginia Housing loans.
